

Our welcome mat is out. The Outer Banks offers a variety of distinct accommodations to meet your group's needs. Everything under the sun, from classic cottages to full service hotels and resorts, can be found along our shores.

You will find many group friendly accommodations to choose from and most offer group rates, complimentary rooms for your driver and/or escort and a complimentary continental breakfast. Though anytime is a great time to visit The Outer Banks, the spring and fall provide the best values for group travelers. And with several lighthouses dotting our shores, you can be sure of this... we'll keep the light on for you.
